

ARTICLE 1 - SCOPE – ENFORCEABILITY

On placing any order of equipment, including software, accessories, spare parts and consumables (hereinafter the "Equipment") and/or of services (hereinafter "Service(s)") with Safran Electronics & Defense (hereinafter the Seller), the customer (hereinafter the "Customer") hereby consents and automatically agrees to comply fully and without exception to these terms and conditions, notwithstanding any other contrary stipulation set out in its general purchasing terms or in its other documents. All clauses or conditions set forth by the Customer, whichever are the period and the medium, are unenforceable on the Seller, unless otherwise previously and expressly agreed in writing by the Seller.

The fact that the Seller does not claim at any time any one of the present general terms and conditions shall not be interpreted as a waiver of a later exercise of such a condition.

If any provision of these general terms and conditions is held contrary to a mandatory rule applicable to European Union consumers pursuant to their national legislation, such provision shall not be applicable to these consumers. The remaining provisions shall remain applicable.

ARTICLE 2 - ORDERS

Any offer by the Seller shall remain valid for thirty (30) days from the date thereof, unless otherwise specified in writing by the Seller.

Orders must be placed in writing and shall not be cancelled or modified by the Customer, after the date of sending thereof to the Seller, without the prior written consent of the Seller.

The Seller reserves the right to refuse to carry out any order or intervention for a Customer in case of any dispute relating to the payment of a previous order.

Any order shall be considered as accepted by the Seller, only once the Seller has provided written acceptance or has carried it out.

ARTICLE 3 - DELIVERY AND FULFILMENT TIMES

Unless otherwise expressly specified in writing by the Seller, the times must always be considered as given on a purely indicative basis. Any delay in delivery or in work will not entitle the Customer to terminate its order, nor give rise to the payment of any penalties and / or damages. Even if the Seller has accepted binding times in writing, the Seller shall not be under any liability in respect of any commitment of time in the following circumstances:

- Technical difficulties, failure from the Seller's suppliers, failure from carrier, force majeure,
- Lack of or incorrect information given by the Customer,
- Time delayed at the request of the Customer,
- Delay caused by customs formalities or by the Customer in the performance of its contractual obligations.

ARTICLE 4 - PACKAGING AND TRANSPORT

Unless otherwise stated in writing by the Seller, packaging of Equipment will be undertaken by the Seller. Any specific packaging requested by the Customer shall be invoiced at the price in force on the date of the order. The Seller is under no obligation to take back any packaging.

Packaging, when consigned, shall remain the Seller's property and is left at Customer's disposal only for the time strictly necessary to the use of the Equipment of which it is the support or the container A deposit invoice, corresponding to the value of this packaging, is issued on delivery, based on the Seller price list in force at the time of the order. If the packaging is returned to the Seller in its original state within three (3) years from its delivery, the deposit paid by the Customer shall be refunded; failing that, or if within this period of 3 years, the packaging is lost or damaged (in whole or in part), a sales invoice for the packaging shall be sent to the Customer. In all circumstances, the Customer is responsible for verifying on delivery the integrity of the packaging and the contents of any package, and if necessary endorsing to the Seller and to the carrier details of any apparent damage or non-delivery within the time and conditions set forth herein or under law. Failing this, no claims shall be accepted.

ARTICLE 5 - DELIVERY – TRANSFER OF RISK

Unless otherwise stated in writing by the Seller, delivery takes place when the Equipment is left at the Customer's disposal in the Seller's premises as per the incoterm defined in Article 8. Risk passes to the Customer on delivery.

In case of orders concerning several pieces of Equipment, the Seller has the option to deliver the pieces of Equipment in one or more consignments.

Failing written and motivated reservations from the Customer within eight (8) days following the delivery of the Equipment or the fulfilment of the Service, such Equipment or Service is deemed to conform to the order, without prejudice of the Customer's rights with regard to the guarantee.

ARTICLE 6 - INSTALLATION - USE

Unless otherwise stated in writing by the Seller, the Seller shall not carry out the installation of the Equipment. In no event, shall the Seller be in charge of preparing the necessary environment for the installation and the correct functioning of the Equipment (in particular for the electric connection) and of the possible required administrative formalities. It will be the Customer's responsibility to arrange for all formalities, and to subscribe at its own expense to any necessary Service, if appropriate for the use in whole or in part of the Equipment.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, in the event where Equipment or Services are subject to export laws and regulations as well as national, foreign and international regulations, the Parties shall comply with such regulations. Consequently, the Seller will do its reasonable efforts to request any official authorizations to deliver Services and Equipment, and the Customer will not import, export or re-export Equipment, Services or any related confidential information without obtaining all required government licenses, approvals or waivers and will provide reasonable assistance to the Seller to obtain such authorizations. In the event such authorizations is not obtained, revoked or renewed by the government authority at the request of the Seller, such event shall be considered as an event of force majeure. The Customer shall take care and inform the Seller of any change in relation with the use/end-user of the corresponding Equipment/Service and applicable governmental authorization such as import or export licences.

The Customer shall use the Equipment in accordance with the Seller requirements, and shall take all the necessary measures to ensure the preservation and integrity of any data stored in the Equipment.

ARTICLE 7 - RESERVATION OF TITLE

The Equipment shall remain the entire and exclusive property of the Seller until the payment of the total price of the Equipment has been received by the Seller, including if the Customer files a petition in bankruptcy or is in similar circumstances. The payment shall be considered as effected when the total price of the order has been received in cleared funds by the Seller.

In the case of non payment of an invoice, in whole or in part, on the due date, and according to the provisions of article 13, the Seller shall be entitled to terminate automatically and without the necessity to make an application to the Court, the order and the unpaid Equipment shall be immediately returned to the Seller.

All intellectual and industrial property rights in the Equipment and Services supplied by the Seller (including research, projects and software) shall at all times remain vested in the Seller absolutely (or if the case arises, in the third party who is the owner thereof).

ARTICLE 8 - PRICES

Unless otherwise specified in writing by the Seller, prices specified by the Seller are quoted "FCA Seller factory" according to the Incoterms published by the International Chamber of Commerce, 2020 edition. The Seller may at any time and without notice update its prices or its price list in force.

Unless otherwise specified in writing by the Seller, the prices stated in the Seller's offers or estimates shall remain valid for one (1) month from the date thereof and do not include packaging, transport, insurance and possible installation charges.

The prices are exclusive of taxes. Taxes are those in force at the date of invoicing and must be paid by the Customer.

The invoiced prices are those in force at the time of the order, subject to the provisions included in the Seller's offer.

All expenses, charges and taxes incurred as a result of use of the Equipment (in particular subscription and use charges) shall exclusively be borne by the Customer.

The Customer shall be responsible customs, local taxes, or other charges relating to the importation of the Equipment and for the appropriate declarations and for the payment of such customs, taxes, and other charges to the Government and agencies thereof in his/her country.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, whatever the applicable Incoterm, if Equipment is exported directly to a country outside the European Union, the Seller may provide appropriate customs documentation to the Customer. The Customer shall be liable for meeting any customs and taxes requirements in relation with the Equipment / Services. Customer will provide any documentation (e.g. for VAT purposes) to the Seller upon its first request, especially in the event where Equipment is carried out through airway or seaway. The Seller cannot be held liable, and Customer shall have full responsibility and liability, in the event where such documentation is not delivered to the attention of the Seller in due time.

The Seller and the Customer agree to exclude the application of article 1195 of the French Civil Code in the execution of this these general terms and conditions and the related purchase orders, the Seller and the Customer dealing with the consequences of any change of circumstances that arise during the performance of these general terms and conditions.

ARTICLE 9 – TERMS OF PAYMENT

The Equipment and Services shall be invoiced when delivered. Unless otherwise specified in writing by the Seller, invoices are payable, net and without discount, and are due for payment on the thirtieth (30th) day after the date of the invoice. Payment shall be made to the Seller by bank transfer in the currency quoted. At any time, the Seller reserves the right to demand a down payment or a cash payment before carrying out any order, in particular:

- in the event of a payment incident
- in case of an unfavourable financial inquiry on the Customer,
- in the case of a rejection of the Customer's invoices by a factoring company.

In the event of late payment by the Customer for any due instalment, all other instalment will immediately become payable, even if drafts have been issued. By virtue of the application of law "modernisation de l'économie" of august 4th 2008, the Customer will rightfully, without notification, be liable for a late payment penalty, calculated prorata to the total amount due, at a rate equal to the rate of interest applied by the European central bank (ECB) to its most recent refinancing transaction, plus a ten (10) points. In addition, the Seller shall be entitled to retain all deliveries and all Services, and / or, to terminate the order, according to article 13. Moreover, a fixed indemnity for recovery costs of 40 euros excluding VAT shall be due for each invoice in arrears, without any reminder being required. In the event that litigious proceedings are initiated to recover the debts, the costs incurred by the Seller shall be borne by the Customer and shall be invoiced to the Customer, in addition to the amount due as principal and late payment penalties, together with substantiating documents.

ARTICLE 10 - CONFIDENTIALITY

Documents of any kind (including studies, plans, drawings) handed out by the Seller shall remain the Seller's ownership. The same applies for Software, for which the Customer has only a non-exclusive right of use limited to its sole needs under the order. These documents and Software shall not be disclosed to third parties nor copied, without the Seller prior express consent.

The Customer undertakes, even after the performance of the order:

1. Not to copy, modify, decompile or reverse engineer, in whole or in part, the Equipment or any software embedded in the Equipment.
2. To comply with and procure that all users comply with any applicable licence agreement relating to software embedded in the Equipment.
3. Not to disclose any trade secrets or other confidential information disclosed by the Seller or which he/she may have known through his/her relationship with the Seller.

Notwithstanding any other provision, no source code will be provided to the Customer.

ARTICLE 11 – WARRANTY

a) Unless otherwise stated in writing by the Seller, the Seller warrants that any new Equipment (consumables, software and accessories excluded) will be free from defects in workmanship (labour and parts included but travelling/shipment excluded) during a period of twelve (12) months from the date of delivery of the Equipment to the Customer ,

b) As to repaired or exchanged Equipment during the original warranty period hereabove mentioned, the warranty period on the exchanged or repaired Equipment shall expire three (3) months after the date of repair or exchange of such Equipment or upon the expiration of the warranty period applicable to the original Equipment set forth in § a), whichever is later.

Any defective Equipment, under warranty, shall be replaced or repaired, free of charge, at the Seller discretion (to the exclusion of compensation for any other damage), being understood that depending on the Equipment, the work shall be carried out either at the Seller's premises or on the installation site and the Customer shall have to pay either the travel costs of the Seller to the site or the travel costs of the Equipment (transport and insurance) to the Seller.

The warranty applies under normal conditions of use.

Prior to any work, the Customer shall, at its own costs, undertake every step in preparation for such work and save all personalised data held in the Equipment. In case of loss or damage to data, the Seller shall not be liable and shall not reinstall any such data in the Equipment.

No return shall be accepted without the Seller prior written approval.

The Seller has the choice to repair the Equipment with spare parts or new parts, replace the Equipment by a new piece, or in good working order. The defective elements, repaired, shall become the property of the Seller.

The time when the Equipment is repaired or unavailable during the guarantee period shall not give rise to an extension of the guarantee period as set forth in article 11.1 here above, subject to legal mandatory provisions.

In addition, the Seller shall have no liability under the warranty in respect of:

1. defects, breakdown or malfunction due to:

- failure to properly follow the installation process and instructions for use; or
 - an external cause to the Equipment (including but not limited to, shock, lightning, fire, vandalism, malevolent action, contacts with various liquids or vermin or water damage of any nature, inappropriate electric voltage); or
 - modifications to the Equipment made without the written approval of the Seller; or
 - a lack of every day maintenance (as described in the documentation supplied with the Equipment) or to a lack of supervision or care; or
 - bad storage conditions or poor environmental conditions, particularly those related to temperature and hygrometry, effects of variations of electric voltage, parasites from the electric network or from the earth; or
 - repair, work (opening or attempt to open the Equipment) or maintenance of the Equipment by persons not authorised by the Seller;
2. damage or defect due to insufficient, improper or bad packaging of Equipment when returned to the Seller
 3. wear and tear from normal daily use of the Equipment and its accessories
 4. communication or network problems
 5. work on any Equipment modified or added without the consent of the Seller
 6. Equipment returned to the Seller without its prior consent.
 7. Defects or malfunction from parts or materials supplied or chosen by the Customer or from a design imposed by the Customer.

Subject to legal mandatory provisions, the express warranties set forth in this article 11 are in lieu of all other warranties express or implied. Especially, the Seller makes no representations or warranty as to quality or fitness of the Equipment or Service for any particular purpose. In no event shall the Seller be liable for indirect, special or consequential damage (including but not limited to loss of orders, loss of profits, loss of data and any other financial or commercial damage) whether based on warranty contract or tort.

ARTICLE 12 –OUT OF WARRANTY SERVICES

In the cases of warranty exclusion as well as after the expiry of the warranty period as described in article 11, a quotation shall be sent to the Customer to be agreed before any work. The repair and return transport costs, mentioned in the agreed quotation, will be invoiced to the Customer.

12.1 Repairs & Standard exchange

The defective spare parts may be sent to the Seller. Upon receipt, the Seller shall send to the Customer a quotation to be agreed for repair or standard exchanges. The cost of expertise and the cost of returning the parts will be invoiced to the Customer according to the price list in force if the Customer does not accept in writing the quotation prior to the end of the validity period thereof, and/or if the Customer rejects the quotation and/or if the part is not repairable and/or if no defect is recognised by the Seller.

In addition, in the event the Customer does not accept the quotation of Seller for such repair or standard exchanges and does not retake possession of the Equipment stored in the Seller's premises (or those of a third party designated by the Seller) within ninety (90) days from the date of issuance of the quotation, the Seller will invoice the Customer a daily storage fee, starting on the date of issuance of the quotation and equal to 50 euros per day, until the Customer retakes possession of the Equipment. Subject to applicable laws, if Customer does not retake possession of the Equipment within twelve (12) months from date of issuance of said quotation, Seller shall be considered to have the entire ownership of such Equipment and Customer shall hold harmless and indemnify Seller against all actions, claims and costs in relation with said Equipment.

Furthermore, if Customer accepts the quotation in writing prior to the end of the validity period thereof but does not take redelivery of the Equipment within ninety (90) days from the date of redelivery "FCA Seller factory" (Incoterms, ICC 2020), the Seller will invoice the Customer a daily storage fee, starting on the date of redelivery and equal to 50 euros per day, until the Customer takes redelivery of the Equipment. Subject to applicable laws, if Customer does not take redelivery of the Equipment within twelve (12) months from date of said redelivery, Seller shall be considered to have the entire ownership of such Equipment and Customer shall hold harmless and indemnify Seller against all actions, claims and costs in relation with said Equipment.

The Seller shall be entitled to set off and deduct the daily storage fee owed under this paragraph from any amount owed by the Seller to the Customer under any agreement.

The parts sent to the Seller must be packaged by the Customer according to the standards in force and a detailed description of the defects shall be attached to the defective parts. The Seller shall not accept the return of any part unless its prior written consent. Transport and insurance costs in respect of these parts, to the Seller shall be borne by the Customer. The replaced parts shall become the property of the Seller.

The Seller warrants its Services under this article 12 (labour and replacement parts) for three (3) months from the date on which the Seller has carried out the said Services. Provisions of articles 11.2 to 11.5 of these general terms and conditions shall then apply.

ARTICLE 13 - TERMINATION OF THE ORDER

The Seller shall be entitled to terminate the order at any time automatically and without the necessity to make an application to the Court:

- If the Customer is in breach of any of its contractual obligations in respect of any order, and in particular, in the case of defaulting payment on the due date, and if such breach remains unremedied for a period of fifteen (15) days following notice by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt
- Subject to legal provisions, if the Customer files a petition in bankruptcy or is in similar circumstances.

In all these cases, the Customer will immediately at its own expense return the delivered and unpaid Equipment, in good working order to any address which will be specified by the Seller, and will pay the Seller upon its request damages equal to the price of the Equipment in its condition as new at the date of the order if repair is not feasible. This clause shall not prevent the Seller from claiming for other damages to compensate its damage, if such damage is higher than the hereabove mentioned amount.

ARTICLE 14 – TRADEMARKS

The Customer shall not use the trademarks under which the Equipment is sold except for identifying such Equipment. The Customer shall not alter or remove any marking on the Equipment.

The Customer shall not register, in its own name, nor to have them registered, the SAFRAN's trademark or SAGEM or SAFRAN ELECTRONICS & DEFENSE's trademark, any trademarks or other distinctive sign of the Seller or which may be confused with those of the Seller.

ARTICLE 15 - LIABILITY

Subject to mandatory legal provisions, in particular under product liability law, the Seller's total and aggregate liability whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise shall not exceed 50% of the amount paid by the Customer to the Seller under the concerned order.

In no case, shall the Seller be liable for any indirect, and / or consequential, and / or non material and / or moral damage including in particular financial and commercial loss such as loss of profit, loss of orders, loss of production, loss of anticipated earnings, punitive damages, loss of data, damage to reputation, interruption of Service and losses of whatever nature claimed to the Seller by the Customer, due to damage suffered by third parties.

In addition, the Seller shall be under no liability in the event of damage caused to Customer's data or programs, being specified that the Customer has to save such data at his/her own costs. No data shall under any circumstances be reinstalled by the Seller in the Equipment in case of damage.

The Customer must comply at his/her own exclusive costs with all applicable laws and regulations in force in the country where the Equipment is delivered or used.

The Seller shall be under no liability and no obligation to compensate in case of force majeure.

ARTICLE 16 – COMPLIANCE WITH LAWS

The Customer shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations such as personal data and export regulations from the United States of America, the European Union and its relevant member country. Customer shall also comply with the legal provisions against corruption in accordance with any applicable anti-corruption laws or regulations including but not limited to the U.S. Foreign Corrupt Practices Act of 1977, the UK Bribery Act 2010, the OECD Convention of 1997 and the United Nations Convention Against Corruption of 2003 (UNCAC). Customer shall not grant, directly or indirectly, any unduly gift, present, payment, remuneration or benefit whatsoever (trip, etc.) to anyone in connection with the sale of the Equipment/Services described under the present general terms and conditions.

In the event of failure to comply with the foregoing provision, the Seller shall automatically have the right to terminate and cease any order passed referencing the present general terms and conditions with immediate effect and without compensation for the Customer, and without prejudice to any remedies that the Seller may take against the Customer.

ARTICLE 17 – FORCE MAJEURE

Should a case of force majeure occur (governmental action, strike, riot, war, import or export restrictions, flood, fire or any other event recognised by French Courts as an event of force majeure), the party concerned shall notify the other party by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt within fifteen (15) days from the occurrence of the event ; the obligations of the parties concerned by such event shall be suspended for a time period equal to the time of the event, and without any damages.

If this event of force majeure lasts more than three (3) months, Seller shall be entitled to automatically terminate the contract and without any damages.

ARTICLE 18 - DISPUTES

French law, to the exclusion of the provisions of the Vienna Convention on the International Sale of Goods, shall apply to these general terms and conditions and to the orders governed by them.

Subject to legal mandatory provisions, all disputes relating to these general terms and conditions and to the orders governed by them shall, failing an amicable settlement, be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the Courts of Paris (FRANCE).
